Functions

1. Complaints may be made by any person, soldier or law enforcement personal whether or not that person is a victim of, or witness to, an incident of corruption. Complaints can be made without fear of retaliation.
2. The Hall of Justice will investigate corruption, misconduct, make findings, conduct administrative trials, and enforce discipline on any position or rank of the Military, Federal Judges, Law Enforcement Agencies, District Attorneys' Offices, and the Department of Corrections.
3. The Hall of Justice will have the ability to secure a subpoena if needed to retrieve evidence to conduct a thorough investigation.
4. The Hall of Justice investigators will be empowered to investigate Judges who are accused of being malicious, biased, unethical, and corrupt in their court decisions. The Hall of Justice will ensure that Judges are held accountable for judicial actions that are unlawful and for falsifying decisions, biasness in rulings, and for not following the letter of the law. If found guilty, the Judge will be reported to the Federal Judiciary Committees for termination.
5. The Hall of Justice investigators will be empowered to investigate the U.S. Military when evidence of murder, corruption, negligence, racism, and civil rights violations are presented. The Hall of Justice will ensure that the armed forces are held accountable for their actions in these instances.
6. Hall of Justice investigators will be granted full access to all records, files, and computers of any Department or any level of a department it is investigating to conduct a thorough investigation.
7. Any person or Department preventing a Hall of Justice investigation or preventing their investigators from obtaining information regarding an investigation will be immediately suspended, and a hearing will be held to determine the punishment for the obstruction of justice. The punishment could be as severe as termination from their position as per the authority of the Hall of Justice regardless of rank or position.
8. If it is determined by the Hall of Justice that a person is a victim of retaliation for filing a complaint, the person or persons causing the retaliation will be immediately suspended from their position regardless of rank or position.
9. Hall of Justice will also be responsible for conducting investigations and administrative trials for all substantiated cases of civilian allegations of corruption and misconduct against all federal court Judges, and District Attorneys' Offices in the federal system nationwide.
10. The Hall of Justice will engage in community outreach throughout the fifty states to educate the general public concerning the agency's purpose and the services provided to the public concerning the issues relevant to the agency's operation.

Rules

1. The position of Commissioner of the Hall of Justice can be only held for two terms. One term is equal to four years, and the position will be appointed by the President and candidates to be picked jointly by the Senate and Congressional Judiciary Committees to ensure a fair and impartial organization is established.
2. The Hall of Justice position of Director of Judicial Operations will be held by a Judge. This position will be responsible for ensuring that all legal matters are followed and enforced to the letter of the law by the Hall of Justice. Judges are appointed under the Director of Judicial Operations who have no affiliation to the departments that are being investigated.
